Dear Ethel,

I certainly enjoyed my visit with you. You were very nice to me and I enjoyed the fights with Jimmy too!

I enjoyed Sunday very much. Everyone was so nice. Enid is certainly grand. I imagine she will be going back to California soon. I know you will miss her.

I read in the paper about the rain — when it rains it pours, eh? I'll bet it came as quite a surprise to Phoenix and other valley people. It's too bad that it caused so much damage.

The war situation worries me. I imagine you're rather uneasy yourself. There has been quite a development along that line since I was in Phoenix.

Has Harry told you he was here Sunday and Monday? We had lots of film. Sometime when you feel like driving I'd love to have you visit me.

Please tell your mother and father, and Ada and Frank that I enjoyed visiting them too. Every one was <sup>(is)</sup> so nice — made me feel so much at ease.

I hope you like your new job and that everything is O.K.

Sincerely,
Julia
