

Trinoli November 7 65

Dear husband I again
avail myself of the opportunity of dropping a few lines to you, as I have not had a letter from you for 3 weeks and I feel very anxious to hear from you so I will keep writing untill I do, this leaves me as I hope it may find you enjoying good health, father and mother are both smart, and the rest of the family are well I expect to go to Lancaster this week and I hope there will be a letter there for me, I have not heard from father nor none of the family since I wrote to you, I am sorry that we are all so disappointed for we have been this long you would soon be home, I do hate to think that I will have to live alone all this winter though the time dont seem half so long as it did before you come. Ruf. hear on the prairie, I have not got my cow yet but father is going to get her up as soon as he gets through with these potatoes, the Bickford Boys have got home they bought land in the south west part of missouria they say they like it very well

it is pretty cold here now we have had considerable ice and some snow

O yes i must tell you Probert & Anderson has got back from Virginia with a new wife and
who do you think
it is now i will bet
you could not guess but i will tell you it is Sarah Renth his first wifes sisten, she says all she will lack of acquaintances with you will be an introduction for Em
wised to tell her about you in her letters,
well tomorrow is Election day and i wish you was home to vote. I believe i have told you all the news of interest so i will close for the present, write soon and often as you can and i will doo the same Direct to Brinoli no more at present But Remaine your affectionate wife Eliza Kealey

W. H. Kealey