>Duane,

> Sorry that it has taken so long to get a response from me on the Elwood >info that you sent to me, but just got it downloaded. I will hopefully >finish that work to you some time this week, that I started way back when.

>Here is what I have from your last letter:

> Nancy Hazel Elwood was buried in Evergreen Cemetery. She died in >Bristolville, Ohio.

> Charles Edward Elwood was married in Alger, Ohio to the one listed >that he married in Jan.1, 1930. So you have to check the one that I >listed for that date, if you don't know, I will look it up.

> Dora Evelyn Ruth Elwood is the same person as Evelyn Ruth Elwood, >which was married to Denver Crislip.

> Those places that I listed that were corrected in your last letter, >were hand written by another person. I was just going as they had >spelled it in their information.

>I will try and get to where I left off, later on this week. I am trying to >get things done that I need to get done first. Let me know if there is >anymore question to what I have written, will be gladly to look it up for >you.
