McCoy Grandparents: Have no records further back than grandparents.

My Mother's Father.

William Washington Ward McCoy born Feb. 14, 1831 in Lawrence Co., Ohio died June 19, 1892

(I have no listing of brothers and sisters)
or no record of when married.

Eliza Brewin McCoy born in England on April 16, 1839
died August 2, 1894

Brothers: John and Charles.

Sisters: Anna Daft, Sarah Jones, Alice Gentry, Emma Davis, Mary Booth, and Martha Booth.

(I remember an Anna and Josie Daft who lived in Colfax, Iowa
when I was young, though I thought they were cousins of Mother's,
but not sure.)

I imagine Fred Brewin who lives in Newton, and whom
I know as Mother's cousin, must have been a son of either John or Charles Brewin.

Aunt Martha Booth lived in Prairie City, married to Uncle John Booth and had children:

John, Willie, Arthur, Clarence and Frank, and Alice.
Frank died in World War I. Clarence was married and had two children, a boy and a girl, though Clarence was young when he died.

There is only the two Booth children living now, though I do not know them.. I did know the farm and all of the other Booths as I was growing up.

Children:

Laura Ellen McCoy Hagendorf born Jan. 31, 1864

See Hagendorf family listing.

Charles Brewin McCoy born ?

See McCoy family listing.

Rose May McCoy Weaver born Feb. 25, 1884 in Brooklyn, Poweshiek Co., Iowa died Jan. 20, 1961 in Des Moines, Iowa.

See Weaver family listing.

James, William and Oliver are also listed, but if I recall correctly, Mom told me they died as babies or young, and she did not know them either.
