Sarah Taber Pursuant to an order made at the November Term 1855 by the undersigned it was then agreed after being first duly sworn for that purpose how allotted to Sarah Taber widow of William Taber her slaves in the lands of which said Taber died consist, in the following manner, Beginning at the river at the mouth of the lawn, running with the same, and with Barnette line, passing as a worm on Barnette line to a stake in Taber's field, thence north $5^{\circ} 45'$ west in the direction of a worm in Mathews' field, until it intersects said Mathews line, with said line to the river and with the same to the beginning, with all the appurtenances thereto, with the following reservations. The house now in the occupancy of Sarah Simpson is reserved, with a small enclosure around the same, and a passway for a wagon from said house to the lawn, which lawn is to be kept open to the river, in addition to which the said Sarah Taber is to have the use of any timber which may be necessary for any repair of houses or fences and for fuel or of desired by her, or any one of the heirs of said William Taber. One third part of the timbered land may be measured off to her in such a way as may be convenient to her slaves, lands, the privilege of getting
